SONG OF PRAISE

"Satisfied"

Clara T. Williams, Karl Digerness © 1997 Karl Digerness Music/CCLI License #136148

All my life long I had panted for a drink from some clear spring,
That I hoped would quench the burning of the thirst I felt within.

REFRAIN: Hallelujah! He has found me,
The One my soul so long has craved!
Jesus satisfies all my longings,
Through His blood I now am saved.

Feeding on the filth around me, till my strength was almost gone,
Longed my soul for something better, only still to hunger on.

Poor I was, and sought for riches, something that would satisfy,
But the dust I gathered round me only mocked my soul's sad cry.

Well of water, ever springing, bread of life so rich and free,
Untold wealth that never faileth, my Redeemer is to me.

CONFESSION OF FAITH

from Our World Belongs To God

Joining the mission of God, the church is sent with the gospel of the Kingdom to call everyone to know and follow Christ and to proclaim to all the assurance that in the name of Jesus there is forgiveness of sin and new life for all who repent and believe. The Spirit calls all members to embrace God's mission in their neighborhoods and in the world: to feed the hungry, bring water to the thirsty, welcome the stranger, clothe the naked, care for the sick, and free the prisoner. We repent of leaving this work to a few, for this mission is central to our being.

You have shown us, O God, what is good,
You have shown us, O Lord, what You require.
You have heard all our songs, how we long to worship You
Yet You've told us the off'ring You desire.

CHORUS: To do justly and to love mercy
And to walk humbly with you, God.
You said to do justly and to love mercy
And to walk humbly with you, God.

You have shown us the riches of Your love,
You have shown us Your heart for those in need.
Lord, You're opening our ears to the cries of the poor,
You have called us to be Your hands and feet.

To the oppressed and the broken,
To the widow and the orphan,
Let the river of Your justice flow through us.
